

HOLIDAY LIGHTS RETURNS TO LAKE COMPOUNCE ON NOVEMBER 22

Featuring festive events such as Elf Bootcamp and Pawliday Lights

BRISTOL/SOUTHINGTON, CT – (November 19, 2019) – It just isn't the Holidays until you visit Holiday Lights at Lake Compounce. Returning for its 8th season, this New England Holiday favorite will take place every Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening from November 22 – December 22.

Holiday Lights features the tallest Christmas tree in Connecticut. At over 100 feet tall and decked in hundreds of thousands of lights and decorations, it is sure to amaze. A ceremonial lighting of the tree is held nightly at 5 pm on Fridays and 4 pm on Saturdays.

Holiday Lights provides unique festive entertainment for all ages. Enjoy a spectacular light show every half hour set to your favorite holiday music, decorate cookies, build a gingerbread house, and write a letter to Santa. Don't forget to ride the North Pole Railway to sing along to classic Christmas carols, stop by Kiddie Land to listen to stories told by Mrs. Claus, and visit the Winter Wonderland Starlight Theatre to tell Santa your Christmas wish and get your photo taken.

New this year on December 14 & 21, kids can sign up for Elf Bootcamp on the Lake Compounce website, a special training session where little elves will get their official elf hat and certification through participating in workshops, reindeer games and more. And of course, don't forget the furriest of family members! On December 22, grab your goodest boys and girls for Pawliday Lights. Treat your pooch to a special walk in the park, delicious puppacinos, belly rubs from Santa, and so much more.
